The presentation of the album will be released on October 4, and he assures that “it is not only music, it is an experience, a journey through the senses. The event was a journey through the senses: from the evocative decoration of the Sevillian patios, to the tasting of Sevirol Spritz, a 100% Sevillian spritz. The guests also received as a gift a Sevillian tile specially designed for the occasion, while the aroma of orange blossom evoked the Sevillian spring. The evening culminated with the impressive live performance of two songs from the new album: “De Plata y Oro” and “Sevilla 40.0”.

Furthermore, the presentation highlighted the social commitment of Esperanza Fernández, who has launched a campaign to raise €40,000 to benefit Andex, a Sevillian association dedicated to childhood cancer.

Seville, September 6. At the Espacio Santa Clara in Seville, among orange trees and the smell of orange blossom, Esperanza Fernández has presented her new album, “Sevilla 40.0”. Supported by her team, family, friends and a significant number of media, Esperanza has been moved to remember her 40 years of career and see them captured in this very special album in which she sings to the music that has marked her life.
