"A Ramingo" is the first CD by Liberjango, a project born in the heart of Romagna, where three musicians with jazz roots embarked on a musical journey in search of evocative melodies.

True to their name, this trio skillfully navigates through timeless compositions of legends like Astor Piazzolla and Django Reinhardt, also paying homage to Italian composers like Ennio Morricone.

These compositions have all been meticulously rearranged to fit the trio's style, and a portion of the repertoire is written by the trio members themselves. In their interpretation, they always leave room for improvisation, infusing dynamism and expressiveness into each piece.

The result is a poetic odyssey, rich with a distinctive European flavor. Despite their recent formation, Liberjango has already received invitations to perform in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Germany, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Montenegro, and Slovenia.
